

Broken Record
Plain White T's

Artist: Plain White T's

Song: Broken Record

Album: Wonders of the Younger (2010)

For those who would prefer chords, this is a chord-only version. The original key is Eb with no capo, but I changed it to capo 3 to keep the chord forms simpler. So Capo 3, Standard tuning: EADGBE

Intro: Am, F, G 2X

Am

It was summer love,

she was like a drug,

F

fit me like a glove,

G

everything was all right.

Am

I was James Dean,

she was Billy Jean,

F

California queen,

G

everything was all right.

Am

From the back beat,

to the back seat,

F

in the heat, heat,

G

everything was all right.

Dm

Lovers and years have come and gone,

Am

she'll always be my favorite song,

F

she was solid gold,

she was rock n roll,

G

I should have never let her go, go, go.

Am F

Kiss me goodbye and I knew it was final,

C G

got in her daddy s car and she was gone like vinyl,

Am F

her memory pops up when I least expect it, and gets stuck in my head like a broken record,

C G

Am F C G

ba ba ba ba ba broken record, uh ba ba ba broken record,

Am F C G

a broke a broke a broken record.

Am

She was hi fi,

she was low fi,

F

burning up July,

G

everything was all right.

Am

Left me with a kiss,

wonder where she is,

F G

and does she ever miss me, oh oh oh

Dm

Lovers and years have come and gone,

There ya go. Plain White T s are so great at just making a catchy song and I always love their vocal harmonies.
