F

I knew that this was wrong as I stood reaching for the bedroom light

Dm

But she turned me on, so I turned it off

F

Now every man has got his flaws his breaking point, his sacred cause

Dm

And I had mine, but I crossed that line

A#

Now I could never ask you to

Gm

Forgive me for the things I do

D#

But if you ever need me

You know where I ll be

F

Meet me in California

A#

I ll be there waiting for your call

A#m

I ll be there waiting for you

F

Cause you know in California

Dm A#

There s something better for us all

A#m

Meet me in California

F F F N.C. F~

F

This night was like a bible verse with pages torn and missing words

Dm

Condemning me, and I m on my knees

F

I wish that I could start again
peel the past like sunburned skin

Dm

Right off of me, but itâ€™s not that easy

A#

Now I could never ask you to

Gm

Forgive me for the things I do

D#

But if you ever need me

You know where I ll be

F

Meet me in California

Dm A#

Cause you know in California

Dm A#

There s something better for us all

A#m Dm

Meet me in California

I don t wanna say goodbye

F

And I don t wanna make you cry

Dm

I just wanna see you smile again

A#

Cause everything I used to be

F

Is waiting over there for me

C

This is a beginning not an end

A#

Now I could never ask you to

Gm

Forgive me for the things I do

D#

But if you ever need me
