

Shouldve Gone To Bed
Plain White T's

There are two guitars: one with a capo and one without. I only tabbed the capo version. It's correct too, cause I've seen them play it live.

or play E B A B C#m (without capo as the lead singer does)

Capo 3 fret

C G
I only miss you at midnight
F G
But when that lonely clock strikes
Am G F G
That's when I wish you were here
C G
The angel knows it's not right
F G
But the devil is in my heart tonight
Am G F G
Whispering things in my ear

C G F G Am
So I down my cup and then I hit you up
G F G
Saying stupid stuff, oh!

CHORUS:

C G F
I should've just gone to bed
G Am
I should've never called you
G F
I should've listened to my head
G
When it said, leave it alone

C G F G
No, a few drinks and here I go missing you again!
Am G F
God only knows what I said
G C
I should have just gone to bed
G F G Am G F

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

G C

I should've just gone to bed!

C G

All day long I'm over you

F G

Never really think of you

Am G F G

I keep you out of my head

C G

But some nights when I'm striking out

F G

You're all I can think about

Am G F

Just gotta have you again
