

What If
Plain White T's

What If

C#m                    A                    E                    B
What if nobody likes me what if I don t succeed
C#m                    A                    E                    B
What if I give it all that I ve got and I still don t got what they need
A                    B                    C#m
What if I don t get anywhere at all
F#m                    G#
Will I consider myself a failure will I be that small
C#m                    A                    E                    B
What if she doesn t like me what if I m not her type
C#m                    A                    E                    B
What if all the girls that ever like me are not the kind of girls that I like
A                    B                    C#m
What if I meet the right one and screw it up
F#m                    G#
Will I consider myself a failure will I give up

A                    E                    B                    C#m
I m gonna keep trying getting denied just makes me want it more
A                    E                    B                    C#m
I ll keep trying and each time push harder than before
A                    E                    B                    C#m
I can t live my life always worried about what if
A                    B
Cause what if I die tomorrow Then I never even lived

C#m                    A                    E                    B
What if they don t like me what if they think I m a joke
C#m                    A                    E                    B
What if they act nice to my face But they hate me and I don t even know
A                    B                    C#m
What if they end up stabbing me in the back
F#m                    G#
Will I consider myself a failure or will I fight back

Chorus

C#m                    A                    E                    B
What if nobody likes me what if I don t succeed
C#m                    A                    E                    B
What if I give it all that I ve got and it s not good enough till I bleed
A                    B                    C#m
What if I don t get anywhere at all
F#m                    G#
Will I consider myself a failure will I be that small...NO!

Chorus (X2)
End on C#m

Fun song. Sounds great with power chords.
