Verse:

B            F#        E                            F#
Your word is a light unto my path
B            F#                    E                            F#
Your love guides me through my darkest night

Pre Chorus:

G#m                            F#/A#
And even though sometimes
                          B                            E
Your ways I cannot understand
                          G#m                            F#/A#
I ll never walk away because
                          E
My future s in Your hands

Chorus:

B                            F#                            G#m
I don t care what people will say
                          E
I m running after You
B                            F#                            G#m
I wont turn back and go their way
                          E
I m running after You
B                            F#                            G#m
Don t matter what may come my way
                          E
I m running after You
B                            F#                            G#m
It s You I m following today
                          E                            (G#m F#/A# B E/G#m E)
I m running after You

Enjoy !!
