The Blacksmith Planxty

Intro: Em D C D Em

Em D

A blacksmith courted me

C D Em

Nine months and better

D

He fairly won my heart

C D Em

Wrote me a letter

G D E

With his hammer in his hand

D

He looked quite clever

L

And if I was with my love

D Em

I d live for ever.

Em 1

But where is my love gone

C D Em

With his cheeks like roses

D

And his good black Billycock on

C D Em

Decked round with primroses

G D Em

I ${\tt m}$ afraid the scorching sun

D

Will shine and burn his beauty

And if I was with my love

D Em

I d do my duty.

Em D

Strange news is come to town

C D Em

Strange news is carried

D

Strange news flys up and down

C D Em

That my love is married.

G D Em

I wish them both much joy

D

Though they can t hear me And may God reward him well Em D For the slighting of me. Em Don t you remember when C D Em You lay beside me And you said you d marry me C D Em And not deny me G D Em If I said I d marry you It was only for to try you So bring your witness love D \mathbf{Em} And I ll not deny you. \mathbf{Em} No witness have I none D Em Save God Almighty And may he reward you well C D Em For the slighting of me G D Em Her lips grew pale and wan It made a poor heart tremble To think she loved a one

Em

And he proved deceitful.
