Temple Of Thought
Poets of the Fall
Am
Chills
Chills come racing down my spine
Like a storm on my skin
      Am
With shaking hands
I'll guide your sweet soul into mine
Until I feel you within
      F
And I know
                          Am
I know that it's all about understanding
And I hid it inside
                            G
               Am
Your beautiful soul as it's crying for love
               Am
To conquer the day slowly dawnin'
I want you to know
You're the heart of my temple of thought
Am
                                  F
                                           G
                                                          Αm
    So when you're restless I will calm the ocean for you
                      F
                             G
In your sorrow I will dry your tears
                      F
When you need me I will be there, low beside you
                       F
                               (G)
          G
I'll take away all your fears
           G
I'll take away all of your fears
              G
So you can let go all your fears
G
Dreams have nothing on my reality I
I'm the scent of your skin
I know where I am endlessly into the sun

Feel the life, dream within
