Sally Mclennane Pogues

##
#This file is the author s own work and represents their interpretation of the $#This$ #song. You may only use this file for private study, scholarship, or research. $#$
##
#
From: etxjrun@etxb.eua.ericsson.se Jan Runesson
Subject: CRD: The Pogues - Sally McLennane
VERSE 1
D G D
Well Jimmy played harmonica in the pub where I was born
D G A
He played it from the night-time to the peaceful early morn
G D A
He soothed souls of psychos and the men who had the horn and they all looked very happy in the morning
VEDCE 2
VERSE 2
Now Timmy didn + like his place in this would of owns
Now Jimmy didn t like his place in this world of ours
Where the elephant man broke strong men s necks when he d had too many powers
So sad to see the grieving of the people he was leaving
And he took the road from nowhere in the morning
GWODWG
CHORUS
D G D
We walked him to the station in the rain
D G A
We kissed him as we put him on the train
G D G
And we sang him a song of times long gone
D A D A
though we knew that we d be seeing him again
D
Sad to say I must be on my way
G D A
so buy me beer and whiskey cause I m going far away
D
I d like to think I ll be returning when I can
G D A D
to the greatest little boozer and to Sally McLennane

VERSE 3

The years passed by the times had changed Igrew to be a man I learned to love the virtues of sweet Sally McLennane I took the jeers and drank the beers and I crawled back home at dawn And ended up a barman in the morning

VERSE 4

I played the pump and took the hump and watered whiskey down I talked of whores and horses to the men who drank the brown I heard them say that Jimmy s making money far away Some people left for heaven without warning

CHORUS

VERSE 5

When Jimmy came back home he was surprised that they where gone He asked me all the details of the train that they went on Some people they are scared to croak but Jimmy drank until he choked And took the road for heaven in the morning