

Digging Deep

Poor Old Lu

Song: Digging Deep

Artist: Poor Old Lu

Album: Straight Six

Co. 1995 Carlotta Publishing/Poor Old Lu Tunes

Tabbed out by Sean Mills

The song is in E flat tuning, so tune down to the E flat

G D

so now hold your breath

C

and set the stage

G D C

prepare yourself for the cynic s rage

G D C

is it a question still of who is man?

G D C

or how they feel and what I am

D C

but digging deep I found a way

D C

what more do I need to say?

G D

gone through life and death

C

and what remains

G D C

If any blemish hang your head in shame

G D C

like a fever that just keeps you down

G D C

would you simply let it stay around?

D C

diggin deep I guess I ll say

D C

is more pridefulness of that day

D C

in truth I know that it is clear

D C

I was distant, god is near

Em C

In the goodness and strife

G

found empty wanting life

Em C

though so long made no sound

G

D

with tears I bowed myself down

G D

won't you greet this man

C

and hear his words

G D C

maybe an open ear would make him stir

G D C

could a closed heart have saved all man?

D C

diggin deep I guess I'll say

D C

is more pridefulness of that day

D C

in truth I know that it is clear

D C

I was distant, god is near

G D C

so now hold your breath and set the stage

G D C

prepare yourself for the cynic's rage

G D C

is it a question still of who is man?

G D C

or how they feel and what I am

If you have any questions, changes, or want anything else tabbed out email me at smmills@cncnacc.cn.edu