If this is really the first day of spring

Am G
what are you doing my little goose?

G G6 Am7 C G
You honk and you cry but you never really sing

Am FMaj7
I think it s time you took to the sky

G
You gotta move

G G6 Am7 C G
If the heat of summer s here again

Am G
why are you still here my flowering friend?

G G6 Am7 C G
Your beauty was cool back in May

Am Fmaj7 G
but you are wilting on this June day. On this June day.

G G6 Am7 C G
If fall is dusty and it s dry

Am G
keep your head buried my little fern

G G6 Am7 C G
well the sparks they shower almost every night

Am Fmaj7
in nervous skies

G
I m fearing a big burn

(solo)

G G6 Am7 C G
If winter has us buried under ice

Am G
where will you go my dragonfly?

G G6 Am7 C G
Well I see you through the surface of the pond

Am Fmaj7
will you hover there, wait for me

G
until the ice is gone?

(solo)

Bm Am C G Am
will you still need me in every season

G
honey, that s all gone

Bm Am C G Am
you used to need me, now you need a reason

Fmaj7 G C G
I haven t got one. I haven t got one
