HUMMING - Portishead

Tabbed by: Windsor Bellephone
Email: wbellephone@gmail.com

Tuning: Standard E

NOTE:

Go easy on me guys, it s my first tab... it helps to play the chords at two extremes of the fretboard, to emulate the theremin s
bend. one way that sounds pretty decent is to play A#m barred on the 6th fret and then the fingering of (0-0-6-5-5-4) for the F augmented chord. the chorus is easy just remember to alternate the 9th a few times until you finally settle on it as the last chord.

intro:

A#m F+
A#m F+
A#m F+
Bm F#m
Bm F#m
F#m9

verse:

A#m Closer,
 F+
No hesitation,
A#m Give me,
 F+
All that you have.

Chorus:

Bm
And it s been so long,
 F#m
That I can t explain
 Bm
And it s been so long,
 F#m

Right now,

F#m9

so wrong.

Naked,
My thoughts are creeping,
Too late,
The show has begun.

Cause it s been so long,
That I can t confess,
And it s been so long,
Right now so wrong.

Is it all as it seems
So unresolved, so unredeemed,
If I remain, how will I know.

Cause it s been so long,
That I can t be sure,
And it s been so wrong,
Right now, so wrong.
