The Home by Portugal. The Man.

Lyrics by John Baldwin Gourley.

Key: F

[Intro]

Bb 2x-C 2x

Do you ever listen to the sounds that your hands make?

Bb-C

Did you know that we could make sounds?

[Verse]

Gm	Bb	C
I don t know what the palace knows, but I don t run with sheep,

C

The shepherd can't heard me

C

My feet ever slow with the age that takes me, I ll slip out to the mountains

Bb C
Where nobody knows me

[Chorus]

(I m not sure if there are any chord changes here, if there are, the chords are probably the same as the rest of the song.)

Gm (Let it ring)

I will make my home here

I will make my home here

I will make my home here

[Verse]

Gm Bb C

Grow a field of plenty to hold me tight and keep us warm

Bb

from the cold that burns me

Gm Bb C

My feet ever slow with the age that takes me, I ll slip out to the mountains

Bb C
Where nobody knows me, and

[Chorus]

Gm (let it ring)

I will make my home here

I will make my home here

I will make my home here

[Verse]

E|-----3h5--5p3|

[Bridge]

(fingerpick this part somehow, it sounds good just plucking the notes of the powerchord for each chord, then gradually building up.)

Gm Bb F C
I know that I was fine before (fine before, fine before)
Gm Bb F C
I know that I was fine before (fine before, fine before)
Gm Bb F C
I know that I was fine before (fine before, fine before)
Gm Bb F C
I know that I was fine before (fine before, fine before)
