Prince Royce

*La verdad no soy muy fan del artista, sinceramente no me gusta su estilo de música, pero esta canción no sigue ese ritmo y más que nada me llamó la atención el arpeggio, que además de no ser complicado, suena muy bien.

Cacowalton.

La canción entera es con arpeggio, muy simple, pero igual pongo la intro a modo de guía para poder tocar la canción entera. Comienza con la intro, y al empezar a cantar es el mismo arpeggio. Los acordes que siguen en la canción tienen la misma estructura (tocando generalmente la 2º 3º y 5º cuerda al mismo tiempo.)

and when the credits arrive I'll be by your side letting you know

No other woman's made me want it this much
I cannot resist the warmth of your hips
a single serving is never enough
'cause I'm addicted to your touch

Yeah
I want your neck
I want your shoulders
I want to be the only one that holds ya
I want your legs, I want your arms
I wana be inside your heart

If I don't have you next to me
I'll probably lose my sanity
I am hooked on you addicted

I am addicted to your touch
No other woman's made me want it this much
I cannot resist the warmth of your hips
a single serving is never enough
'cause I'm addicted to your touch

I am addicted to your touch
(Adicto a tu amor)
No other woman's made me want it this much
I cannot resist the warmth of your hips
a single serving is never enough
'cause I'm addicted to your touch
