Time will test the limits,
Of all that we have done.
Time will hold a candle,
That burns brighter than the sun.

Time will sit there waiting,
For you to soon return.
Time will sit there watching,
As your heart begins to burn.

Riff X2

G // F

It s all this waiting,
As you look to me to say.

Chorus (Heavy)

A // F // G // F

You could be my summer,
You could be my hell,
You could be my everything,
Can I be yours as well.
You could be my winter,
You could be my earth,
You could be my everything,
If we can make this work.

Break (Intro)

Verse 3

Empty spaces fill my world,
But nothing fills my mind,
Love could fill this void,
I feel open up inside.

Now all see is sunlight,
But I can't shield my eyes,
I must be the spider,
Inside this world of flies.
