ROUGH ROAD LEADS TO THE STARS
PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

----- /
-----/

So I ll just sit here, pretend to count the stars
Just like we did on your dorm room floor
Staring at the ceiling and knowing this couldn t get much better
Every time we thought of happiness it was of you and I together

PRE-CHORUS

Am
And my friends all say that
G Am
They ve never seen me smile so wide in my life
C G Am
And if I tried, I couldn t replace
G Am
That smile that you placed upon my face
C G Am
It s safe to say: You were my everything
C G Am
Dana, You were my everything
C
Just try to be strong

Just try to be strong

CHORUS

C G
Cause these days are so long, and these drinks are so tall
Am F
And I ve been spending my time counting the minutes

Just to feel consistent
C G
Looking for you in every aspect of the world
Am F
There s just no sunset, butterfly or rainbow

That could compare to you, girl

VERSE 2

(INTRO/VERSE TAB X6)

Got our pictures laying out on my bed
And I m just trying to find the right words to connect
That we travel through live so enriched by the ones that we love
So how could you blame God for wanting to take such a beautiful angel

Am
G Am
They ve never seen me smile so wide in my life
C G Am
And if I tried, I couldn t replace
G Am
That smile that you placed upon my face
C G Am
It s safe to say: You were my everything
C G Am
Dana, You were my everything
C
Just try to be strong

Just try to be strong

BRIDGE

C F
