Bm A
Your road leads to hell
Bm A
even when its paved with good intentions Bm A
and i can see it so well
though you try to distract my attention with your tactics of fear and your lies saying that i need your protection but you can keep your good words of advice cus i will go the other direction

i will never follow you
i will never follow you
i will never follow your way its a road to destruction a road of distractions i wrote this to focus and to take action cus i dont wanna follow your chase for the dollar your crusade for oil your race is immoral no love for your brothers no love for your sisters a beauty contest for the ones whore the quickest drugged up to endure it emotions switched off switch on your computers live through the keyboard

Bm A Bm
the keywords a free world not sure then google it

A
and be sure they will sue the shit

Bm A E
out of us for defamation like dole

and the truth will never be told

but nothing can surprise me no longer

A E
when they give the noble peace prize to a war monger

[Chorus]

i will never follow you
i will never follow you
i will never follow your way if you move right i will turn left and if you move backwards i will take another step forward into the future

forward into the future

i will never follow you
i will never follow your way
