G
I ve got good reason, you know I don t really know what to say
D
Your curious incentive, I don t know why I feel this way
Em7
I never treated you right, I never intended to change
G
you got that old green toboggan, fits you tight like my demission
D
You grandfather me in like I deserve your kind remission
Em7 G
I know I m selfish, I know I ll only hurt you again

G D
And you just submit because we re only human, baby
Em7
Let s take this night by night
G D
You submit because we re only human, baby
Em7
It s not all black and white

G
I ve got pleasant thought, you know I don t know how I sleep at night
D
Charisma smothers guilt, like I could hide feeling contrite
Em7

All these modern concepts for your modern capacity
D
I know i can t help myself, let monogamy recapture me
Em7 G
I get accustomed, i get comfortable

G D
And you just submit because we re only human, baby
Em7
Let s take this night by night
G D
You submit because we re only human, baby
Em7
It s not all black and white
