Intro: G / Am / G / Am / Bm / Am / D / D

G Am
There s a picture by his first wife on the wall
G Am
Stripped floor-boards in the kitchen and the hall
Bm Am
A stain from last week s party on the stairs
D
But no-one knows who made it
Or how it ever got there
G Am
They were dancing with children round their necks
G Am
Talking business, books and records, art and sex
Bm Am
All things being considered you d call it a success
You wore your black dress

Oh, oh
Oh, oh...

Oh, he s an architect and such a lovely guy
And he ll stay with you until the day you die
And he ll give you everything you could desire
(Oh, well, almost everything -
Everything that he can buy)
So you sometimes go out in the afternoon
Spend an hour with your lover in his bedroom
Hearing old women rolling trolleys down the road
Back to Lyndhurst Grove
Lyndhurst Grove, oh
