[Intro]

C Dm

[Verse 1]

C

She likes to watch the moon

Dm

As it travels through the sky

Cos she s heard it s romantic

Dm

Though she really can t see why

Eb

Dm

Someone should have helped her through the day

Eb

Dm

Someone like the moon

[Verse 2]

C

So she drinks a cup of coffee

Dm

And telephones a friend

C

And she asks if she can make it

Dm

So this night never ends

Eb

Dm

And someone should have helped her through the day

Eb

Dm

Someone like the moon

[Chorus]

Bb

Dm

But the light comes and the day bleeds through the sky

Eb

Dm

And the sun, the sun made it hard to get through

Bb

Dm

And the radio only played love songs, so she cried

Eb

Dm

Oh, she knew it s such a bad thing to do

[Verse 3]

In the evening it gets better,

Dm

And she thinks how it s not right,

C

That someone so stupid,

Dm

Can so easily screw up your life.

Eb

Dm

Someone should have helped her through the day.

Eb

Dm

Someone like the moon.

[Chorus]

Bb

Dm

But the light comes and the day bleeds through the sky

Eb

Dm

And the sun, the sun made it hard to get through

Bb

Dm

And the radio only played love songs, so she cried

Eb

Dm

Oh, she knew it s such a bad thing to do

Can t you see? Can t you see?

Bb

Dm

Someone should have told her you had gone

Eb

Dm

Oh Someone like the moon.

Can t you see? Can t you see?

Bb

Dm

Someone should have told her you had gone

Eb

Dm

Oh Someone like the moon.
