

This Is The Song
Good
Punch Brothers

Starts on: Dm

The entire verse is basically a D minor chord played over different bass notes. If you listen closely, you can hear Chris Thile changing the bass note on his mandolin with each chord change, but it's always over a Dm. When the song develops later, it sounds more complicated, but it's the same basic idea.

The chorus is pretty simple.

Dm Dm/C
This is the song where I listen

Dm/Bb Dm/G
This is the song where I sit still

Dm Dm/C
I called the dogs off all the things Iâ€™m missing

Dm/ Bb Dm/G
And to everyone but you before I set sail

Gm Eb Eb
I said good luck, good luck, good luck

C
These are tough times

Eb
But weâ€™ll get by

Bb
Good luck

Dm/G Dm7/ C
This is the song where you speak up

Dm/Bb Dm/ G
This is the song where you get moving

Dm/G Dm/C
You cried some trouble out into a tea cup

Dm/Bb Dm/G

And to me but no-one else before you threw it

Gm Eb Bb
You said good luck, good luck, good luck

C
These are tough times

Eb
But weâ€™ll get by

Bb
Good luck

Dm Dm/C Dm/Bb Dm/G (4 times)

Dm Dm/C
I put ashore in front of our apartment

Dm/Bb Dm/G
And watched you comb the stoop for shards of porcelain

Dm Dm/C
Satisfied that there were none that broke the silence

Dm/Bb Dm/G
And after this I promise not to interrupt again

Dm/G Dm/C
Cause this is the song where I listen

Dm/Bb Dm/G
This is the song where I sit still

Dm Dm/C
Until our heartbeats drown out the clock ticking

Dm/Bb Dm/G
And the song is just I love you and always will

Gm Eb Bb
Good luck, good luck, good luck
