Man on the Prowl
Queen
The Works, 1984
Mercury

The majority of this song is improvisational and flexible, I m giving you the basic form the chords implied on the piano, but its tricky because of the walking baseline, plus vocal part can be deceptive. I added the 7th where I could hear for sure they were on the record, but a 7 can be easily added to any chord anywhere in the tune.

Intro:

G (baseline: G-B-D-E)

Verse:

G

Gonna take a little walk on the wild side,

D7

Gonna loosen up and give me some gas

G

Gonna get me some action, goin crazy drivin in the fast lane

C

(lane) My baby left me alone

G

She left me dirty and I m feeling so lonely

D

C7

G

So come home, come home, If you dont youre gonna break my heart

Chorus (similar to the second half of the verse):

(G)

C

Man on the prowl

Man on the town...

G

Im on the loose and now Im looking for trouble

D

C7

G

So look out, look out, cause Im a man on the prow!

Verse 2 (same as the first):

(G)
I dont wanna be rockin instead

D7
I just wanna be low down trash

G C
I wanna go to the movies, all I wanna do is sit on my ass

C
(ass) So honey come home

G
Dont leave me while I m feeling so lonely

D C7 G
So come home, come home, if you dont youre gonna break my heart

Chorus (similar to the second half of the verse):

(G) C
Man on the prowl Man on the town...

G
Im on the loose and now Im looking for trouble

D C7 G
G-F#-E-D)
So look out, look out, cause Im a man on the prowl!

Bridge:

C G
Ive been dreaming bout my baby but it aint gonna get me nowhere

(G) C D
Gonna teach my baby dancing, but I aint no Fred Astaire

G-G F-F C D
So baby look out Im a man on the prowl

G-G F-F C D
Look out Im a man on the prowl

C D C D D7
Yeah yeah Yeah Yeah baby,baby,baby come home

G (solo starts)
Man on the prowl yeah

Guitar Solo/last verse (same as verse)

The outro is just a jam on a G, no real chord changes.

Gotta love Rockabilly Revival! Enjoy!
