

3s And 7s Acoustic
Queens Of The Stone Age

Tuning: Capo on first fret

Note: Clearly not the chords they play, but these ones are more suited to an acoustic player. Timing is hard, there is no real timing to this so if it sounds right go for it. I've only tabbed the introverse of this song but at least this bit sounds awesome. I'll tab the rest later so keep a look out.

Intro:

Am - C - Am - G - DF# - Em

Verse:

Am - C - Am - G - DF# - Em

Lie, lie to my face,
Tell me it ain't no thing,
That's what I wanna hear.

Am - C - Am - G - DF# - Em

Take, a lie to the grave,
That's what an old friend told me,
Look at what it did for him.

Am - C - Am - G - DF# - Em

Run, you'll never escape,
You see you go nowhere (so new you appear),

Am - C - Am - G - DF# - Em

Broke, laid to waste,
Turn into sweet nothings,
That kiss you goodbye.
