What A Life Quietdrive

Capo on first fret

There s a man down my street every morning wakes up late Α when he wakes up he sees what he s become slaps his shoes on his feet shuts the door and leaves Α working his whole life oh what a life -chorusto a place we don t belong we believe that heaven s gone in a world that s going mad in a song that makes us sad we believe in what we want cuz it hurts us to be wrong F#m if i break before it ends in my heart of hearts I hope you ll understand Α there s a school up my street with some kids i know D Α as blameless the snow the falling snow Then a man half insane shoots up half the school before taking his own D life oh what a life (chorus) (background singers A) E.... 3x (wake me up when all the people wanna change) .....

A these cops are on the streets there s people breaking into stores F#m the sky is falling all around us, and there s one place left to go D cuz i believe in something better, something we were born to receive E and i don t care what anyone says cuz i believe (Chorus)
