

Is It Too Much
Ra Ra Riot

A D

Elevator down

A D

I m rushing in a suit

A D

A vision of the soul in the wind

A D

You ll see it on the bay, oh

A D A D

Heavy heavy days and so little motion here

A D A D A

Ever want to guess what you would ve thought on?

A D

No, I never thought

D D D A

Wake up, wake up, wake up, for me father

A A A D

Is it too much to ask you to bother?

D D D A

I don t care if you don t even miss it

A A A D

Cause I have enough to think every minute

D D D A

And though I never had much to say

A A A D

Is it too much to ask for a visit?

(repeat same pattern throughout the song.)

Little heart be gone

I ve wanted to devote

I didn t have a reason, though

But you had a reason, oh

How the hell am I staying so divided?

Oh never could avoid

Unless I would ve been

Oh I ve never been able to explain myself

Wake up, wake up, wake up, for me father

Is it too much to ask you to bother?

I don't care if you don't even miss it

Cause I have enough to think every minute

And though I never had much to say

Is it too much to ask for a visit?

Wake up, wake up, wake up, for me father

Is it too much to ask you to bother?

I don't care if you don't even miss it

Because I have enough to think every minute

And though I never had much to say

Is it too much to ask for a visit?
