If the moon is making everything go backwards

Does it mean you ll soon be here?

If the best years of your life come when you re young will my troubles disappear?

If we re meant to be we ll find each other back you see with one another

You said to me before you walked away

But you re not coming back it s all been just a line

I know this cuz I find myself saying it this time

If you draw what you put out into the world am I to live with silly girls who look for reasons in all they see

If what shan t kill us will make us stronger why s the past keep getting longer why is it still here if it is history?
