

Damage

Rachel Wammack

[Intro]

Dm F C G

Dm F C

D G D G

[Verse 1]

D

Iâ€™m a bartender, best friend pretender

G

D

I make drinks to help forget and help remember

D

Beautiful humans, I am a student

D

And Iâ€™ve seen it from all sides winning and losing

[Chorus]

G A Bm

Oh, love can do

Bm D G

Love can do

G Bm A D G

Love can do some damage

[Verse 2]

D

She was his first wife, she was his whole life

G

D

He whispers through the whiskey that Iâ€™ve got her eyes

D

And then the others. The cancer, the mother.

D

And the prodigal just trying to find some shelter

[Chorus]

G A Bm

Oh, love can do

Bm D G

Love can do

G Bm A D

Love can do some damage

G A Bm

Oh, love can do

Bm D G

Love can do

G Bm A C

Love can do some damage

[Bridge]

G

I listen and I smile

D

A

The breaking up to making up to walking down the aisle

C

We try to manage

G

From the cradle to the grave

D

Getting lost and getting saved

A

Love's always been the same in any language

[Verse 3]

D

I'm a bartender, if you came in here

G

D

I'd pretend that I've forgotten to remember

G

D

All of the beauty, beautiful ruins

G

D

And tonight I'll make a toast to me and you and

[Chorus]

G

A

Bm

And all that, love can do

Bm D G

Love can do

G Bm A D

Love can do some damage

[Outro]

G

A

Bm

Oh all that, love can do

Bm D G

I still love you

G Bm A

And love can do...

D G

Some damage

D G D

Oh, some damage
