

Summer Skeletons
Radical Face

Put a capo on the third fret. If you re tuned a half-step down to play other Radical Face songs, then capo the fourth instead.

Intro: G

C Em
We were sun-burned and shoeless kids
D G
It was the dead of July
C Em D G
We were skippin stones in the failing light
C Em
I smelled the fire place
D G
Although we were miles away
C Em
We were infinite
D
There was no time in those days
D C
When all we knew wasn t stolen
G D
There was nothing real to lose
C
When our heads were still simple
G D
We d sleep beneath the moon
C
You were something
G D
That would always be around
C G
When regrets were nowhere to be found

G C G D G Em C D x4

G C Em
Lost out among the trees
D G
Our hands scraped the bark
C Em
You still had bloody knees
D G
From your spill in the dark
C Em
We were both laughing then

D G
While carving bad words in the wood

C Em D
We had no need to speak

G C D x4, build up A G into the verse

G C Em
Night, down by the shore

C G
We were down by the shore

G C Em
When the skies opened up

C Gm G
And all the stars fell into the lake

C Em
When the water was warm

C G
Walked in over my head

Em C D Gm G
But you pulled me out by the collar of my shirt

The Gminor chords in that verse are optional, in the song it sounds like only the piano drops into the minor chord briefly

G C Em C G C Em D G x2, but on the second extend the D instead of going into G

G C Em D
Dirt in our ears, sun in our eyes

G C Em D
Shirts hung in rags, head in the clouds

G C Em D
Our fears had no teeth, hearts were still blind

G C Em D
You barely talked and I didn't mind

G C Em C G Em D x2, end on G
