Summer Skeletons Radical Face

Put a capo on the third fret. If you re tuned a half-step down to play other Radical Face songs, then capo the fourth instead.

Intro: G

We were sun-burned and shoeless kids

It was the dead of July

Em D

We were skippin stones in the failing light

I smelled the fire place

D

Although we were miles away

C Em

We were infinite

There was no time in those days

When all we knew wasn t stolen

There was nothing real to lose

When our heads were still simple

We d sleep beneath the moon

You were something

G

That would always be around

When regrets were nowhere to be found

G C G D G Em C D $\times 4$

Lost out among the trees

Our hands scraped the bark

You still had bloody knees

From your spill in the dark

C

We were both laughing then

                               G
While carving bad words in the wood
                  Em
We had no need to speak
G C D x4, build up A G into the verse
                   Em
Night, down by the shore
We were down by the shore
        C
When the skies opened up
And all the stars fell into the lake
                   Em
When the water was warm
Walked in over my head
                  Em
                                   D Gm G
But you pulled me out by the collar of my shirt
The Gminor chords in that verse are optional, in the song it sounds like only the piano drops into the minor chord briefly
G C Em C G C Em D G x2, but on the second extend the D instead of going into G
                  Em
Dirt in our ears, sun in our eyes
               С
                    Em
Shirts hung in rags, head in the clouds
                        Em
Our fears had no teeth, hearts were still blind
                        Em
                                D
You barely talked and I didn t mind
G C Em C G Em D x2, end on G
