

Escape

Radical Something

the majority of the song is 2 upward strums each chord, however there is a bit of continuous strumming if you listen to the song, but the song is pretty easy to play. the first C# is on the 4th fret, the second is on the 9th fret. The pattern is the same throughout the whole song so enjoy.

Opening : D , A , C# , C# , D , A , C# , A

D A
Trying to escape leave the shade
C# C#
Find the sunshine baby
D A C# A
Let me light the way, away from here
D A C# C#
I said no way this bridge can hold our waves
D A C# A
So let me light the way away from here

Now Ima tell you like you told me
If cash rules everything around or leave
And now I m not saying people shouldn t buy shit
I m just saying that our country didn t bat an eyelid
When America s got blood on his hands and we scramble and we ramble
To accumulate land and leaders sitting down when we re asking them to stand
It doesn t really seem like the the right to command
So I have been thinking of a master plan
Cause most of us will rather get cash in advance
And meet the people that are different just to shake some hands
Man all we gotta do is give it a chance
I guess if it was all that easy we wouldn t break treaties
We wouldn t even need these yea, somebody teach the world these lyrics
So maybe one day we are all gonna hear it

Chorus

Trying to escape leave the shade
Find the sunshine baby
Let me light the way away from here
I said no way this bridge can hold our waves
Let me light the way away from here

Oh oh oh
I guess this is how it supposed to be
But there s more to being green than just roasting trees
Sometimes I m lying about what s in between the stems and seeds

That s why I learn to live my life without a need for weed
Yea, and that s my Microsoft word to your mother
Why can t we just leave and enjoy each other
Cause either way you look up at the world that we cover
We all end up to be sister and brothers and man
I m in a beautiful position that s why I m asking you to encourage some ambition

And chalk it all up or this talk is all guff
I m starting from the grounds till I build it all up
Yea, and can you learn from me? and I promise I will learn from thee
Gonna teach the world this lyrics and one day we re all gonna hear it

Chorus

Trying to escape leave the shade
Find the sunshine baby
Let me light the way away from here
I said no way these . an hold our way
Let me light the way away from here
