Bangers N Mash - Live from various bootlegs/recordings.
Dont be too hard on me, its not the clearest quality in any of the versions ive gotten a hold of. but its just a great song i wanted to play and saw no tabs for it.

Tuning: D A D G B e (for Johnny)

Intro Riff until the verse. just use random mutes.

e |-----x-x-x-----|
B |-----x-x-x-x-----|
G |-----x-x-x-x-----|
D |-----xx-x-x-x-----|
A |-----|
D |--5--7--5--7-----|

```

Verse/First Chorus

Just naturally mute these notes when you stroke up and down. i dont wanna be confusing, just improvise the mutes.

She bit me, bit me...

e |-----x-x-----x-x-----|
B |-----x-x-----x-x-----|
G |-----x-x-----x-x-----|
D |--7--77--x-----7--77-x-----|
A |-----7x-----7x-----|
D |-----x-----x-----|

During the choruses, i think Ed starts strumming a D bar chord.

- e 5
- B 5
- G 6
- D 7
- A 7
- E 5

And in parts of the verse, Ed slightly bends these back and forth.

G|--7777777--|

In the 2nd and 3rd chorus, Johnny plays a little solo

e |---5-----8----7h8p7h8p7h8---55-----|
B |-----|

```

G|-----|

My favorite part of the song. After the silence, Johnny rips!

e|-----|
B|-----|
G|-----7--7-----7--7-----7--7-----7--7-----|
D|-----|
A|-----|
D|--7~~-----7~7~~-----7~7~~-----7~7~~-----|

Now this was my first guess at how it the above riff was played, and still sounds cool, it has more umph, but its 1/2 step lower

e|-----|
B|-----|
G|-----6--6-----6--6-----6--6-----6--6-----|
D|-----|

And there s most of the song. i cant figure out the outro, there s too much commotion in the band, but im sure there will be better versions once the actual album out. Any corrections/ideas please email so we can get this crazy song figured out!
