Radiohead

 D A# Gm D
Then into your life there comes a darkness
 F A# Am D
There s a spacecraft, blocking out the sky
 A# Gm D
And there s nowhere to hide
 F A# Am D
You run to the back, and you cover your ears
 A# Gm D
But it s the loudest sound you ve ever heard
 F A# Am D
And all we trapped rag doll cloth people
 A# Gm D
We are helpless to resist
A# Ebm A
In our darkest hour

(A# A# Gm A#)

(A# A# Gm A#)

 A
But it was just a laugh, just a laugh, just a laugh, just a laugh
 A#
Even at this angle
 Gm A#
And so we crumble
 A
A ten-ton head made of wet sand

This dread circumference
 A#
You ve gotta be kidding me
 Gm A#
The grass grows over me
 A
Your face in the glass, in the glass

It was just a laugh, just a laugh
 A#
It s whatever you say it is
 Gm A#
In split infinities
