Identikit
Radiohead

```
Fm                                          D#
sweet-faced ones with nothing left inside
C#                                          C7
that we all can love, that we all can love
Fm                                          D#
sweet-faced ones with nothing left inside
C#                                          C7
that we all can love, that we all can love
Fm                                          D#
now i see you messing me around
C#                                          C7
i don t want to know, i don t want to know
Fm                                          D#
now i see you messing me around
C#                                          C7
i don t want to know, i don t want to know

          B                     A
broken hearts make it rain
          G                F#
broken hearts make it rain
          E
broken hearts make it rain
          B                     A
broken hearts make it rain
          G                F#
broken hearts make it rain
          E              B
broken hearts

( Fm     D#     C#     C7 )

Fm                                          D#
pieces of a wreck of mankind
C#                                          C7
that you can t create, that you can t create
Fm                                          D#
pieces of a wreck of mankind
C#                                          C7
that you can t create, that you can t create
Fm                                          D#
now i see you messing me around
C#                                          C7
i don t want to know, i don t want to know
Fm                                          D#
now i see you messing me around
C#                                          C7
```

i don t want to know, i don t want to know

i don t want to know, i don t want to know