This is only the basic intro and verse riff to the song

e-----|
B---3---3---3---2---2h3--|
G---2---2---2---2---2---|
D-0-0--0-0--0-0--0-0---|
A-----|
```

The chorus moves around Dsus and G.

From: Nathan Beach

I sort of figured out Stupid Car, which is one of my favourites. It's done nearly all on the D, G, and B strings. Both the E-strings are damped throughout.

These fingerings should be used:

xx022x D7
xx023x Dmaj
xx043x Bmin

This song mostly involves sliding between the D7 and Dmaj chords.

I find it hard to drive your stupid car...
 Dmaj Bmin D7 D7/Dmaj

I find it hard cause I never get that far...
 Dmaj Bmin D7 D7/Dmaj

And you put my brain in overload,
 Dmaj D7 Bmin Dmaj

I can't change gears, I cannot see the road.
 Dmaj D7 Bmin Dmaj

You've got concrete eyes and I cannot see your face.

And I failed in life
cause you crushed me with your hate (thanks, Steph!)

And you put my brain in overload
I can't change gears
I cannot see the Road...road...
Dmaj (let the low A in some, whatever, strum with reckless abandon).
That's a dun dun ticka ticka dun dun ticka ticka rhythm.

This is a lovely song, hope you enjoy playing it as much as I do.
