

Bird In The House

Railroad Earth

haven't figured out the intro funky part yet, but the rest is very easy- E Bm D E and repeat! great tune!

bird in a house

E i want to sing my own song, that s all
Bm
D cried the bird & flew into a wall
E
E there must be some way out, he cried
Bm
D & his desperation echoed down the hall

just another bird in the house
dying to get out
just another bird in the house
dying to get out

i want to join my own kind, that s all cried the bird & flew into a wall there must be some way out, he cried & his desperation echoed down the hall

just another bird in the house
dying to get out
just another bird in the house
dying to get out

i m gonna smash my way out, that s all cried the bird & smashed from wall to wall
there must be some way out, he cried & his desperation echoed down the hall

dying to get out
just another bird in the house
dying to get out

ooh, ooh, ooh . . .
ooh, ooh, ooh . . .
