CHORUS

there are scars that aren t forgotten there are scars that still remain events of long ago now
somehow form a chain

can you find it in the mirror?
can you find it in your heart?
look into tomorrow
do you stop before you start?

do you find your own voice ringin in a voice that you once heard?
do you recognize the feelings?
do you recognize the words?

oh, here it comes again
oh, some things never end there are things that aren t forgotten there are things that will remain events of long ago

somehow form a chain
