

On Ballots And Barricades Ramshackle Glory

Intro:

Palm muted strums then:

G C G G
G C D D
G D C G
G D G G

G C G
I got Arizona residency one day too late
G C D
To vote on this election day.

G D C G
And every year before Iâ€™ve been too drunk to register.
D G
Iâ€™d say â€œI donâ€™t believe in it anyway.â€•

I still shake my head at ballots cast for elephants.
I shake my head at ballots cast for donkeys,

Cause I swear to god our leaders, they will be death of us.
Thereâ€™s no ballot we can cast to set us free.

But thereâ€™s no brick we can throw that will end poverty,
You canâ€™t blow up SB1070.
Things will never be as simple as when I was twelve years old
Reading Karl Marx in my bedroom alone.

And since there have been laws, there have been criminals.
There have been thieves since thereâ€™s been property.
And the day will come again when none of those things are around,
I just hope itâ€™s before people go extinct.

So vote November 2nd if it seems right to you,
Donâ€™t vote if you think it just holds us down.
Just tell me what weâ€™re gonna do on November 3rd
To make sure thereâ€™s no government left to elect two years from now.

Just tell me what we re gonna do on November 3rd
To make sure there s no government left to elect two years from now.

Hope this is alright.