[Verse]

```
A                               G#                               F#                               E
They assured I was guilty. But I committed no crime.
              A                               G#                               F#                               E
They say confessions bring media. So they put me on the line.
A                               G#                               F#                               E
I protest the massacre in the Tinanmen Square
                      A                               G#                               F#                               E
My friends say stay away man Better not go fucking back there. yeah
