

Aint Much Left Of Lovin You
Randy Montana

Haven t done the intro...If anyone knows it please let me know and i ll add it.
Capo 2

E A
There s an evening dress in the closet, with a red wine stain on the sleeve.
E A
You re pillows still on the bed where we used to sleep.

E A
And in the dresser drawer there s a couple more things that smell like her perfume.

C#m B A
But other than that, there ain t much left of lovin you.

C#m A E B
And all I got is a big broken heart and memories I can t drank away.

C#m A E B
Just because the man I was wasn t enough to make you stay.

C#m A C#m
The heaven we had, the hell that I m going through, other than that, there
ain t much left of loving you.

E A E
The flowers that you planted, on either side of the steps out front, before they bloom I think I might dig em up.

E A
That old porch swing, those songs you sang and the cold and bitter truth.

C#m B A
But other than that, there ain t much left of lovin you.

C#m A E B
And all I got is a big broken heart and memories I can t drank away.

C#m A E B
Just because the man I was wasn t enough to make you stay.

C#m A C#m
ain t much left of loving you.

C#m A C#m
ain t much left...

C#m A C#m

ain t much left of loving you.
