

Only A Girl
Randy Newman

Probably the easiest song to play off the Harps and Angels album, but no less great.

A

She s only a girl

And her voice is peculiar

E E7

And her eyes are strange

E

She s prone to be willful

E7

You try to cheer her up some

A

But she s impervious to change

A

She dresses in black all of the time

E E7

Wears an orthopedic shoe

E E7 A

It s some sort of uglification thing that she s into

A

She s a hundred and ten

A7

Maybe five foot five

D

She don t eat meat

Dm

But she ll eat you alive

A

She s only a girl

E

But she s big time

Instrumental:

A / E E7 / E E7 / A

A

She s only a girl

And I ll tell you about her

E E7

At least all that I know

E

She s from South Carolina

E7

And she came out here

A

A few years ago

She waits on tables

Works in a bank

E

E7

Volunteers at the zoo

E

She sure ain't lazy

E7

But she's very young

A

That's why I called you

She's only a girl

Instrumental:

A / E E7 / E E7 / A

Spoken Word:

A

Well man, now you seen her, what do you think?

E

E7

Uh-huh...

E

E7

Yeah....

A

Thought you'd say that..

No? Alright, go ahead.

E

E7

E

Course I know. No you're wrong there.

E7

Now listen:

A

Love is blind

A7

And deaf as well

D

But I love this girl

Dm

Can't you tell?

A

She's only a girl

E

And she loves me

Key Change:

Instrumental

C / G G7 / G G7 / C

C

Why would someone

C7

Beautiful as she

F Fm

Love someone old like me

C

Maybe it s the money

G

Jeez, I never thought of that
