E B E

(Verse 1)

E

A

E

The hills of Cow Gap stood rugged and awesome

B

But you have to have fill dirt when youâ€™re building a road

E

E

The hills of Cow Gap man they weathered the ages

E

B

C#m

Got wiped off the map for 12 dollars a load

(Chorus)

A

Well they call it the hill country

E

I call it beautiful

E

I call it progress, if it could be saved,

A

They call it the hill country

E

C#m

I call it home

E

Yeah what will they call it when itâ€™s leveled and paved?

(Verse 2)

Uncivilized pagans drink untreated water,

Right out of our river back in there day

Now those streams bubble with clean treated sewage

While they sit in there hot tubs and they sip Perrier

(Chorus)

(Verse 3)

E

Scrape off the hill top build look a like houses

E

Move in some people and turn on the TV

E

After the ball game turn on some old movies

B

C#m

Theyâ€™ll smile when they see how things used to be

(Chorus x3)

E

Yeah what will they call it when its leveled and paved.
