My Worst Fear
Rascal Flatts

[Intro]
A E A E B E

[Verse 1]
```
    C#m           B     E
Last night you gave me a kiss
      C#m                     B      E
You didn t know it,  but i was awake when you did
      C#m               B     E
You where quiet, you were gonna let me sleep
          C#m           B  E
So i just laid there pretending to be
          C#m         A             E
You said some things you didn t know i could hear
      A      E          B          E
And the words i love you never sounded so sincere
```

[Chorus]
```
              E       A             E
Its gonna make it hard to tell you that I m leaving
A       E   B           E
Now that I know just how much you care
    E      A             E
You finally gave me one good reason
A    E    A    E    B         E
Not to go but staying here is my worst fear
```

[Verse 2]
```
    C#m           B     E
This morning I rolled out of bed
        C#m               B   E
Recalling all the sweet things you said
          C#m             B   E
This was the day I was gonna hurt you bad
              C#m           B    E
Called out your name, but you didn t answer back
            C#m     A             E
I searched the house to find out what was wrong
       A     E       B             E
Like a ton of bricks, it hit me you were gone
```

[Chorus]
```
              E       A             E
Its gonna make it hard to tell you that I m leaving
```

```
A           E    B                      E
Now that I know just how much you care
     E         A                E
You finally gave me one good reason
A     E      A      E    B            E
Not to go but staying here is my worst fear

[Bridge]
B                        C#m
 All along I knew that there was something missing
A                             B       A
 And only one thing left to do
B          Ab7/E              C#m
 I had to leave behind this life that we d been living
A                             B
 But the only thing that was left was you

[Chorus]
                      E        A                  E
It s gonna make it hard to tell you that I m leaving
A        E    B                   E
Now that I know just how much you care
     E         A                E
You finally gave me one good reason

[Tag]
A      E      A      E     B            E
Not to go, but being alone is my worst fear
A        E    B           E     A E    A E
And staying here is  my worst fear
