F#m

Let us start from the begin

C#

With confidence you ll win

That s the reason you

G# E

were born

A

Cause Jesus Christ, man, won t

be coming

E

Back no more

F#m

He set up his proper laws

C#

And you know well that he did just what

G# E

He should have done

A

As I was growing and my hair was

E

getting longer

F#m

I was feeling so much stronger

C#

I could carry my guitar, and I knew

G# E

That I could sing!!

A

D

A

But hey, how could I know?

D

A

E

The wind would blow with the rain

A

D

A

Hey, how could I see

D

A

What would they make

E E7

out of me?

A

When I was little, used to dream I

E
was a king

F#m
Now they taught me how to sing

C#
Think I've got most everything

G# E
I could ever ask for

A
You've got your pencil, your guitar,

E
Your amplifier

F#m
Searching for the lousy liars

C#
You will set this world on fire

G# E
Like Nero did to Rome!! Yeah!

A D A
But hey, how could I know

D A E
My eyes could see in the dark?

A D A
Hey, don't press on me

D A E E7
I'm not to blame can't you see?

A
It's been so long now

E
Since the latest red has gone

F#m
Who knows you'll be the next

C#
To go down in history...
