Intro: C Em Bm D

C Em
You come over late
B- D
You're always laughing at something
C Em
You say that you can't stay
Bm D
Why do you bother what do you want, love
C Em
I bet you didn't know
Bm D
That I grew up here, oh yeah I'm from here
C Em
Now all my friends are gone
Bm D
Don't know what happened, don't know where they went

Em Bm
And the crowds they came
D C G
And covered over all the things we are
Em Bm
And they took our names
D C G
And told us we were never here at all

C Em Bm D

C Em
I get a bit confused
Bm D
It's always raining
C Em
Don't know where I am
Bm D
The lights are dimming, everything's closing

I run into a store
Nobody sees me, nobody knows me
I ask them where we are
They dont say nothing, they dont say nothing

And I may have changed
But I never, never abandoned what remained

And the traveling rain
Somehow, somehow never seems to end

And the darkness came
And covered over all the things we are

And it took my name
But maybe I was never here at all
