                 Didn t I (Ray Thomas)
                                 Εm
    They say that love should last forever
                       Em
    Forever s such a long, long time
   F
                               Edim
                     Em
                                       Dm7
                                                   E7
    And my darling I still love you, is that a crime
   F
    Didn t I buy you pretty flowers
   F
    Didn t I tie them in, your hair
                          Em
                                     Edim
                                                   Dm7
                                                         E7
    Didn t we spend those precious hours, without a care
               G7
                            Αm
    Didn t our love burn like the sun
                  F
     \mathbf{Em}
    Didn t our passion run, so very high
             G7
                 Am
    Didn t we aim for the moon
    But our love died too soon, and that s no lie
    Didn t I love you in the morning
    Didn t I love you through the day
                                   Edim
                                               Dm7
                         Em
    Then our love left without warning, memories don t die, do they
```
