Hey Mama Life (Ray Thomas)

D A G A
Hey, hey mama life, is a lonely time

D A G A
For a man, who drinks his whisky, by the jar

D A G A
Now I do believe, the life I lead, won t get me very far

F#m Bm
I was once told, the streets were paved in gold

Em Asus A
Now I know them for what they are

D A G A
Hey, hey mama life, has a sweeter sound

D A G A
For a man, who lives his life, for his dream

D A
Yet he must be aware, there are those who care

G A
And of those who would bring him down

F#m Bm Em Asus A
Separate trust, from your cut and thrust, the truth can still be found

Bm F#m Bm Em
For the crossroads of your life, will lead you almost anywhere

A
You ll see tomorrow

Bm F#m Bm Em A
Your castles in the air, they were never really there

D F#m Bm D

Take the pride from a man, you re left without a meaning

G F#m Em

Take the wings from a bird, how can it fly

D F#m Bm D

Give him hope, give him trust, and a little understanding

G F#m Em

Give him back his pride, you ll be satisfied
