Migration (Ray Thomas)

D(add E) / / / / / / /

D
On and on they journey southward, to the land of warmer summers

Em
On the way they shed their feathers

G A
For the poet s hand to write love letters

D
Flying high in straight formation, seeking out their destination

Em G A
Over seas and windswept forests, frost and snow they re soon forgotten

D
Trees are bare snowflakes are falling

D
You can hear their leaders calling

Em G
Follow me fly strong my brother, be strong of heart

A D
And help each other home

Dm7
And here I am, I m just a man, and there you are among the stars

G A
Flying high searching for a new tomorrow, I wish I could follow

D
Nearer still to new horizons, chill winds blow so far behind them

Em G A
Endless days and sleepless nights, a borrowed gift navigates their flight

D

Still and pure this morning air, so tired now but almost there

Em

The mysteries of nature s calling

G

A

D

Some will climb while others return back home
