Ray Wylie Hubbard

D
Men who ride saddle broncs, drinkin in honky tonks
G D
That I m playin in; playin another night of wind.
D
Pretty girls with their perfume, dancin across the room
G D
That I m playin in; playin another night of wind.

Refrão -----
A
Sawdust floors and dim blue lights
G
Fast movin cowgirls and fist fights
D A G
All for a West Texas Country Western Dance Band
G D
West Texas Country Western Dance Band.

verse 2
I know the latest country song, and I play em all night long
Till I cry sometimes; it s a shame I can t hide
Drink a coke with Wanda B. Harper, play a song by Jerry Jeff Walker
But that s alright; he does one of mine.
Repeat Chorus

BRIDGE
G D
I like the ladies with smokey hair
G D
And ya know how easily they set a fire
A
With a lie.

verse 3
The lead player he got stoned, the drummer s drunk he wants to go home
And nobody cares about the bass player at all
Soul searchin in a honky tonk dive, next morning you think you re alive
Till you wake up and find you re with another man s wife.
Repeat chorus
