[Verse 1]

G C D
79 shiny revolvers
G C D
American made misery night
G C D
Little you know, maybe you need one
G C D
One in your left hand and one in your right

[Pre-Chorus]

G C D
Everyday and where ever I go now
G C D
The march of the man, the black and the blue
G C D
79 shiny revolvers
G C
Pointing at me, love
D
And pointing at you

[Chorus]

G C D
Now everybody talking about it
C G
So we can talk about it too
C D
You really wanna save the world man?
C G
Well, I wanna save it too
C G
We could blow em away
C G
The American way
C D G
79 shiny revolvers

[Verse 2]

G C D
Open your eyes into the new day

G C D
Middle of June, officer down
G C D
Trying to sleep but all of the silence
G C
It s been waking me up
D
And bringing me down

G C D
The camera s on to cover the action
G C D
Civilians all dressed to the nines
G C D
They gather around to see the disaster
G
Take a picture or two
C
Or get on the news
D
What a beautiful life

[Chorus]
G C D
Now everybody talking about it
C G
So we can talk about it too
C D
You really wanna save the world man?
C G
Well, I wanna save it too
C G
We could blow em away
C G
The American way
C D Cm
79 shiny revolvers

[Bridge]
G
There s a killer on the run
Cm G
But look at all the pretty flowers brought by everyone
Em A7
What a beautiful array
C D
Even though he got away

[Chorus]
G C D
Now everybody talking about it
C G
So we can talk about it too

C D

You wanna be a superhero?

C G

Well, I ve got news for you

C G

We could blow em away

C G

The American way

D C

79 (bang, bang, bang)

D C

79 (bang, bang, bang)
