No One Notices Your Brand New T-Shirt Raymond & Maria

the train should leave at 9 but it is always a bit late almost every morning you must hurry from the station if you take the tunnel it can save you a few steps Αm but then you must remember there s a red light at the crossing

C at the office we all know november will be tough Am one call out of four will have to give us a new order everyone seems happy and we have a nice new boss he knows us all by name and says hello to us each morning but...

no one will miss you when you die no one will think of you and cry no one notices your brand new t-shirt although you ve done all that you should you ve been polite and you ve been good

Am

and you worked hard to lose that stupid accent

(repeat for the whole song) next sunday we will go and look at a new house there are some nice ones that they re building near the station if you can do some work yourself it wouldn t cost that much and your man is handy and he has already built a loft bed but...

no one will miss you when you die no one will think of you and cry no one notices your brand new t-shirt although you ve done all that you should you ve been polite and you ve been good and you worked hard to lose that stupid accent $x ext{ 2}$ I remember last year we spent summer by the sea in a rented cottage that felt almost like our own what we ll do this year we have not decided yet but we worked hard so we might get a few days extra off

and though you have a brand new home and you ve invited everyone no one can remember your address and though you ve practiced for so long and you know almost every song no one dreams about you when they re sleeping
