

60 Thompson
Razorlight

This is my first tab so i hope it s good
Tuning:Standard
Capo 7th fret

Am D
The bell boy brings you coffee, there are letters from every shore
G Em
There are flowers of the season, heals the cap size by your door
Am D
Your well protected, cold as you must be to survive
G E
But i know somewhere behind you barricade
D
There s a love that can be made

Am D
And in my blood your ghost is crying living tears
G Em
And i can t switch them off or turn them down or out
Am D
You are a night flower, you bloom as i fade
G E
And you drag me in deeper, behind your barricade

A
We re the love that can be made
E
Behind your barricade
Am
Yes and how long can i stay

Am D
And this edition of yourself you don t believe in anymore
G Em
We ll face the chat show at eight thirty and we ll freeze in the applause
Am D
Who am i to argue, here everybody must get paid
G E
May you bloom forever behind you barricade

A D
Looking for a love that can be made
E
Behind your barricade
A D
Oh, yes and how long can i stay

Am

E

Where seldom arrows do not stray

(please take into account there is no genuin guitar part in this song also i m not to sure about the last few lines so feel free to make any corrections)
